Telegram of 7th June 1913 from the Agent of the Sri Raghavendra Swamy Matt stating that the Swamy will start on tour on the 8th inst.
and requesting that orders may be issued by wire for Barr Sepoys.

In this office letter of the 5th inst., the Chief Commandant has been asked to report if he can comply with the request of the Matt Agent to depute 6 Barr Sepoys and a Naik for service in the Matt.

As directed in page 3 of the office note, mutg. 7- no. 139 of 1907 ^(since traced out) containing
v. Patika no. 5836 of 30-6-08 refd to in Sl. 1 is put up. In the year 1908, when the predecessor of the present Swamy requested that 6 Sepoys might be ordered to accompany him throughout his tour, the Chief Commandant was first asked to state whether the request could be complied with.

Serial
No.

The chief Commandant reported that the request could be complied with if the salary and the Batta could be borne by the Muti - this was communicated to the Swamigale, but as the intended tour was postponed, the chief Commandant was informed of the same and no further action seems to have been taken then -

The request as regards the Silladar escort prayed for since he worked up and submitted for orders separately, references having not yet been treated.

The Swamigale's agent requested that six Sepoys and a Naik maybe deputed to move with the Swami during his tour, the pay and batta being paid by the Muti. The precedent of 1908 is in favour of the Muti but it is quite capable of being considered as special to this Mission, the chief Commandant having intimated that the grant can be spared. The chief Commandant has not been consulted about the present request. And his reply has not yet been ^{received} ~~forwarded~~. As in the meanwhile the Muti Agent has wired, the file is submitted for orders. It is to be regretted that there has been delay in the Branch in having out references and putting up the file for orders. It may perhaps be allowed to say that precedents of the kind are inconvenient. It may ~~perhaps~~ be that other matters of similar status come up with similar requests.

The agent of the Sri Raghava-consisting of 4 Swams and one Talpade to move into the Sringeri Mutt during his present tour. He merely quoted the precedence of the Sri Sringeri Mutt and prayed for its 'pauze' as a mark of respect for the Mutt. This custom does not appear to have been shown to the Mutt at any time before.

Serial
No.

The agent himself admitted in a personal talk with me that this was not had up at any time before allowed to the Muti.

When the Sri Bringer Bravignale went on tour in 1907 a 'Brigade' of Sowars and a guard of Sepoys were deputed to accompany the Bravignale during the tour. This appears to have been in accordance with previous practice, a similar courtesy having been shown in 1867. In 1870 the Bravignale of Sri Parakhalas, ^{Muti} was permitted to take a Brigade beyond the frontier and it appears to have been contemplated ^{then} not to allow either of the Mutis to claim the privilege in future as such deputations for indefinite periods were highly detrimental to discipline. The office is not aware of any other instances of Sowars having been deputed to accompany a Mate Shipathay as a mark of respect.

As so far no precedent has been shown by the Sri Neghar and many Muti in this respect, the agent may cautiously be informed that the Govt. regret their inability to depute

As regards the grant of ¹³ Barr Sergeants
